Jesus loves EVERYONE, even those who are difficult to love. Take Zacchaeus for instance.....

People knew Zacchaeus because he was sort of a bad guy. He was called a tax collector, which basically meant he would steal from people, and they couldn't even do anything about it.

Taking their money away usually doesn't make people too happy! So, Zacchaeus didn't really have many friends. But he heard about Jesus and wanted to see what all the fuss was about. Jesus could spy him up in that tree, and Jesus knew his heart and intentions. He called out to Zacchaeus by name and invited himself over for dinner!

Some of the Jewish people thought Jesus should not be hanging out with someone like Zacchaeus and criticized Him for it. Do you think Jesus was upset by that? Not at all! He wanted to hang out with sinners, which is good news for us since we have all sinned...He also knew that Zacchaeus could change. And in fact, he did.

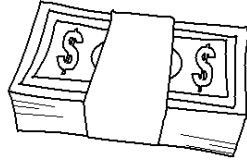

After meeting Jesus, his life couldn't go back to the way it was. He promised that if he had cheated someone, he would pay them back with extra money included! He turned his act around, and I'll bet he had more friends as a result. He at least had one very good friend: Jesus! And we can have Jesus in our lives, too. We can know His love, change our hearts, and tell others about Him.
